FAIR HOUSING LAWS & LITIGATION CONFERENCE FEBRUARY 17-18 / 2005

FAIR HOUSING FOR NEW AND SEASONED ATTORNEYS

This two day conference will have something to offer to the newly admitted/interested attorney who needs a ground level training on the principles of federal and state fair housing laws and litigating related cases. More seasoned civil rights practitioners will want and will get a different perspective in the advanced presentation. A new venue limits seating on a first come first serve basis as follows: Fair Housing Level One Course -25 seats; Fair Housing Level Two Course -18 Seats. Must register by 9 February at lower (firm) rates for non-profit agency attorneys $175; all others $300. Post 9 February registrations and thereafter: non-profit agency attorneys $250; all others $375. 12 MCLE credits offered. Priority registration to FHEO / Fair Housing Center referrals.

FAIR HOUSING FOR AFFORDABLE AND FAITH-BASED HOUSING DEVELOPERS, BUILDERS, PROVIDERS AND PROPERTY MANAGERS - PROMOTING FAIR HOUSING & MANAGING RISK

For all professionals in the affordable housing industry, making fair housing principles a part of ordinary operations is both proactive and preventive - a formula for insuring smooth business operations and increased market share. In this first ever two-day fair housing practicum for the affordable housing industry, (all others invited) registrants will learn about fair housing law application to operations including: advertising-traditional and the Internet; screening and selecting applicants; issues involving families with children; design and construction requirements; land use issues; accommodations and modifications for persons with disabilities; combating hate crimes/racial/ethnic tensions and gaining cultural competency in the face of nationally changing demographics. Seating limited to 125. Must register by 9 February 2005 for lower registration - $55; Post 9 February 2005 registrations - $75.

BREAK-OUT (S)

- Strategies for More Effective Outreach, Education and Litigation For Native American Complainants.
- Strategies for Strengthening Enforcement Efforts of Fair Housing Centers Under 501(C) 3 structure (Closed).
